Teacher takes center stage. Facing the audience she begins the production.

OVERHEAD SLIDE 1: God's Property: His Design, His House

GRANDMA: (center stage) I'm Grandma! I'm the substitute teacher for the Rock of Gibraltar. Today, I will be drilling the class of 20__ for their upcoming proficiency test. My keen senses tell me that all the students will pass with flying colors. I understand this session is being simulcast in insert own city, state. (employ members of the audience to respond). To make sure we have a clear connection, I want the students in the audience to shout unto God with a voice of triumph. The attendance has been taken, and everyone is present. Here's the Rock of Gibraltar's Class of 20__.

Student Introductions - As each student takes center stage, s/he confidently states his/her first name, and then adds "but you can call me Rocky!" As each student says Rocky, s/he also makes hand gestures that indicate victory; s/he is more than a conqueror through Christ. Then s/he takes his/her place and stands in front of his/her pre-assigned seat.

STUDENTS: My name is insert first name, but you can call me Rocky!

OVERHEAD SLIDE 2: I Corinthians 3:9

In time to the music, all students recite I Corinthians 3:9 twice then sing Brick by Brick.

STUDENTS: "For we work together with God.
My heart is God's design.
I am God's house.
I Corinthians 3 and 9" Kathryn Joy Foster translation

SONG - "Brick by Brick"

The students assimilate building a tower with their arms and hands. They make hand gestures as they sing the phrase Brick by Brick. On the first "brick," start with the right arm and hand pointing left, with palms faced down at chest level. On the word "by," position the left arm and hand pointing right with palms faced down over the right arm and hand about six (6) inches. Then on the second "brick," position the right arm and hand pointing left with palms faced down above the left arm and hand about six (6) inches. As they sing "I'm building the house of God," make a right hand fist and act like it is a pounding hammer. When they sing, "I am God's design," they throw up both hands in the air; grin and show all their teeth; and move from side to side, as if receiving applause from the audience.

Brick by brick, I'm building the house of God
Brick by brick, I'm building the house of God

I am God's design, brick by brick
I am God's design, I'm building the house of God.

(Students sit down.)

GRANDMA: Grandma refers to the toothpicks, pop sickle sticks, and glue that are on the prop table. Which tools do you need to build a really strong gingerbread house? How about toothpicks? (The whole class shakes their head from side to side, indicating a "no" gesture.) Okay, what about pop sickle sticks? I helped myself to a few treats just before class, so they are still fresh and sturdy. (Again, the whole class make a right hand thumbs down gesture indicating a "no".)

STUDENT 1: Student moves from his/her seat to where the Teacher is showing the toothpicks and pop sickle sticks and tugs on her dress until s/he gets teacher's attention, then says, "Those are not going to work, you have to build brick by brick".

GRANDMA: Excellent Rocky! I just wanted to see if I could throw in a trick question. I see that I can't. You have certainly done your homework.

OVERHEAD SLIDE 3: Designer of the House

GRANDMA: (Grandma plays with putty.) Next question. Who is the Architect?

STUDENTS: (in unison) God!

GRANDMA: Very good! Rocky, will you please give your report on the architect?

STUDENT 2: (Reads Hebrews 3:4) "For every house is built by some man, but he that built all things is God". To design the perfect house to live in on earth, God called a meeting with Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit. After bringing his ideas before his Project Team, God said; "Let us make man in our image after our likeness". Unanimously, they approved the design on the drawing board. What first looked like only a mud pie turned out to be the most remarkable specimen—mankind. Just like God, I want to be an architect too. Just like God, my job description will be threefold: 1) I will determine the use of the created thing; 2) I will then create the design; and 3) I will also select the building materials.

GRANDMA: Outstanding, Rocky!

OVERHEAD SLIDE 4: Cornerstone of the Building

GRANDMA: Rocky, now who is the Cornerstone?

STUDENTS: (in unison) Jesus Christ!

GRANDMA: You are all going to ace this quiz. Next question. Who has the report on the cornerstone? (As student speaks, Grandma lifts up yardstick.)

STUDENT 3: Reads Ephesians 2:20. "And [we] are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ, himself being the chief cornerstone". To make sure the building is immovable, steady and has an unshakable foundation, the cornerstone must be laid first of all. You can't use cracked stones as a substitution. Yes—in the spiritual building process, Jesus is the Chief Cornerstone! The builders always look to the cornerstone to erect the whole masterpiece. First, they carefully place the cornerstone. Then they perfectly align all the other building materials to the cornerstone. To follow in Jesus' footsteps, we have learned to ask this important question, WWJD, What would Jesus do? But to really make a sound statement in our life, we must not just ask that question but DWJD, Do What Jesus Did and follow his steps to find the way, the truth, and the life as outlined in the original blueprint, the Holy Bible.

GRANDMA: Excellent, my dear Rocky! Here's a poem that demonstrates a man who did not use a cornerstone. "There was a crooked man, who walked a crooked mile. He found a crooked sixpence against a crooked style. He bought a crooked cat which caught a crooked mouse, and they all lived together in a little crooked house". Author Unknown. If you don't build using Jesus Christ as your Chief Cornerstone, you will be just like the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Prayer to Receive Salvation and the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Dear Heavenly Father,

I come before you to acknowledge my need for salvation. I repent of my sin and ask you to forgive me. I invite you to be my Savior and the Lord of my life. Romans 10:9 says, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." I believe that I am saved, right now. I believe that You have accepted me as I am. By the shed blood of Jesus Christ, I believe You have included me as the newest member in the heavenly family right now. I believe I receive all the benefits of salvation right now: forgive all my iniquities, heal all my diseases, redeem my life from destruction, crown me with loving kindness and tender mercies, and satisfy my mouth with good things so that my youth will be renewed like the eagles as Psalms 103:3-5 declares. I declare that there is absolutely nothing in my life that needs saving. I am saved to the uttermost.

Now that I am saved, I am an immediate candidate to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit. I ask you to fill me with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in other tongues, as was experienced in Acts 2:4, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." Therefore I believe I receive the Holy Spirit right now. John 7:38 declares, "He that believeth on me (Jesus Christ), as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." I believe I am empowered to be an eyewitness as Acts 1:6 declares, "But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth".

Thank you for salvation and the baptism of the Holy Spirit. I believe I am brand new. II Corinthians 5:7 says, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

I salute you as the newest member of the body of Christ. This is the most important decision you will ever make in this life. Welcome to our family.
